

EDMONTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS

February 13, 2001

TO: Board of Trustees

FROM: E. Dossall, Superintendent of Schools

SUBJECT: Amendments to Recommendations Regarding the City Centre Education Project

ORIGINATOR: Shirley Stiles, Assistant to the Superintendent

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the administration be authorized to undertake the provincial and board-mandated processes to consider the feasibility of:
  - a. Closure of Alex Taylor School,
  - b. Closure of John A. McDougall School,
  - c. Closure of the junior high program at Eastwood School,
  - d. Closure of Queen Mary Park School, and
  - e. Closure of the junior high program at John A. McDougall School

2. That in conjunction with recommendation number 1, the administration provide information and bring forward recommendations regarding:
  - a. Programming and inter-agency initiatives arising from the City Centre Education Project,
  - b. Modernization of city centre schools,
  - c. Transportation service to facilitate implementation of the City Centre Education Project, and
  - d. Other matters related to the implementation of the City Centre Education Project

* * * * *

On January 30, 2001 the administration presented to the board two recommendations regarding the City Centre Education Project (Attachment 1). Recommendation number 1 was amended by the board at that time to include Queen Mary Park School and the junior high program at John A. McDougall School. The board also deferred the report to February 13, 2001 to allow time to consider information provided by two delegations.

ED:mm

Attachment 1 -- Board report dated January 30, 2001