INFORMATION

This report provides information on an indicator of high school performance relating to continuity in courses of study.

One of the measures used to determine changes in the rate of completion of courses of study is the percentage of early school leavers often referred to as "drop-outs". The term "drop-outs" refers to students who leave school prior to completion of their selected course of studies for employment or unknown reasons. For the purposes of this report information was obtained from the Student Information System and data analysed by school, grade and program. Following are highlights from the data collected:

- 4.2 per cent of high school students dropped out of school in 1998-99 - represents a decrease of 1.0 per cent when compared to 1997-98
- a 2.8 per cent decrease in the net drop-out rate over a five year reporting period
- a decrease in the percentage of students who dropped out in grades 10 and 11 compared to the previous year
- grade 12 had the highest drop out rate
- a $4 \%$ decrease in the drop out rate for special needs students

Appendix I provides more specific information on the number and percentages of drop-outs at each of the sixteen high schools as well as at the district level. Appendix II provides drop out rates by grade level and program level.
